St. James, September 5.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, attended by the Reverend Dr. Stanhope, Dean of Canterbury, &c.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

GRaciouſly to admit our moſt humble and hearty Congratulations for the late Glorious Victory obtained, by the Bleſſing of God, upon the Arms of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough; and for all the Succeſſes by Sea and Land; which have given the World ſuch ſenſible Proofs, that Your Majeſty is the moſt powerful Support to the Liberties of Europe, and the moſt formidable Enemy to any who ſhall preſume to invade them.

The Joy of Your Loyal Clergy muſt needs be great beyond Expreſſion, when the good Providence of God is ſo diſtinguiſhing in Mercies, to a Princeſs, whom his Grace hath ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed by a moſt Exemplary Piety and Charity: We in particular being duely ſenſible, how much the Welfare and Honour of theſe Kingdoms, the Peace of the whole Weſtern World, and the Security of our moſt Holy Religion, do depend upon the Safety of Your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms.

We therefore, Madam, beg leave, on this Occaſion, to repeat our Aſſurances of a moſt fervent Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service: A Zeal, which we ſhall always be ready to expreſs, as in all other Inſtances of Duty, ſo eſpecially by the Conſtancy of Our Prayers, that the God of Battels would daily more and more help You, and pour out his Benefits upon You. And may Your Majeſty's precious Life be ſo long, Your Reign ſo proſperous, Your Subjects ſo perfectly united, Your Enemies ſo entirely defeated, that, in future Ages, Foreign Nations may have no greater Happineſs to wiſh, than an Ally ſo Potent; nor our own, than a Sovereign ſo Gracious, ſo Glorious, as Your Majeſty.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

St. James's, September 6. This day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of London, attended Her Majeſty with the following Addreſs, which Her Majeſty received very graciouſly; and was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Joſeph Wolfe Eſq; one of the Sheriffs.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of Your City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Dread Sovereign!

ALthough from a Mature and Impartial Conſideration of Your great Wiſdom, ſteddy Reſolution, and indefatigable Care, our Hopes were raiſed to a very high Pitch; yet we did not dare to equal them to thoſe great and glorious Succeſſes with which the Almighty hath bleſſed the juſt and neceſſary Arms of Your Majeſty and Your Allies.

The Banks of the Danube ſhall Eccho Marlborough to all future Ages. The Duke, who by his Courage and Conduct, hath at one hearty Puſh ſettled the tottering Empire, relieved Savoy, chaſtiſed the Elector of Bavaria, and curbed the Ambition of the French King: But it is (under God) to Your Majeſty's great Judgment (demonſtrated in Your wiſe Choice of ſuch a General) that theſe great Things are owing.

Such Eminent Mercies do at once raiſe all our united Hearts into one Sacrifice of Praiſe and Thankſgiving to our Great and Gracious God, and turn our Eyes on You, Madam, his Vicegerent, whoſe ſincere Piety and conſtant Devotion are the only Title we can pretend to ſuch ſignal Bleſſings.

May the ſame Good Providence ſhower down all Bleſſings upon Your Sacred Perſon, and make You the Glorious Inſtrument of ſettling Europe in a ſecure and a laſting Peace: May Your Majeſty long live, the Terrour of Your Enemies, the Defence of Your injured Neighbours, and the Delight of Your Subjects; And may You, without the leaſt Interruption, Enjoy all the Pleaſure and Satisfaction that a Queen can have, who Reigns abſolutely in the Hearts of an Obedient and a Grateful People.

The Lord Mayor, accompanied by ſeveral others of the Lieutenancy of the City of London, alſo preſented to Her Majeſty the Addreſs which follows.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of Your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to Congratulate your Majeſty on the great and glorious Victory obtained by the Arms of your Majeſty and your Allies, under the Command of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough, Captain-General of your Majeſty's Land Forces.

'Tis with the greateſt Satisfaction we find, That our Fellow-Subjects, (led on by a General with ſuch Courage and Conduct) have on this Occaſion ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves in Countries ſo remote; and ſhown to the whole World, that 'tis your Majeſty's Arms (with your Allies) that have curbed the Boundleſs Ambition of France.

Theſe ſignal Bleſſings to us, and all your Subjects, we humbly aſcribe to your Majeſty's moſt Exemplary Goodneſs and Piety in the whole Courſe of your Life, and to your unſhaken Zeal for the Protection of our Eſtabliſhed Church, ſince your Majeſty's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors; and therefore, have juſt Reaſon to hope, That Almighty God has reſerved your Majeſty to be the happy Inſtrument of giving Peace to Europe.

And now, (Dread Sovereign!) we moſt humbly Aſſure your Majeſty, That we, who have the Honour to be Entruſted with the Arms of this your Majeſty's Royal City, ſhall always be ready moſt chearfully to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes for the Honour and Service of Your Majeſty, whoſe Auſpicious Reign, we moſt devoutly pray, long may continue the Bleſſing of your Kingdoms

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaford, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for Your County of Middleſex, and the Grand-Jury, aſſembled at the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County, at Hicks's-hall in St. John-ſtreet, the 4th of September, 1704.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate the Glorious and Entire Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces, together with Your Allies, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; which hath demonſtrated the Wiſe Conduct of Your General, the Reſolution, Valour and Bravery of Your Engliſh Arms, and the well concerted, ſecret and happy Management of ſo great an Affair: All which being done under Your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign, We hope is an Earneſt from Heaven of greater Things yet to be done by Your Majeſty, for the Preſervation and Security of the Liberties of Europe.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. John Lord Pawlett, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſes of the Grand-Jury, at the Aſſizes held for the County of Devon, the 14th day of Auguſt, 1704.

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being in a ſerious and thankful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs towards your Majeſty and your People, who, through your wiſe Adminiſtration (whilſt many Neighbouring Countries labour under the miſerable Calamities of War) enjoy the ineſtimable Benefit of Peace, whereby your Majeſty hath been enabled to ſhew a Magnanimity above the Common Standard, by ſending your Arms abroad, to Reſcue Oppreſſed Powers, and to Reduce the Exorbitant Deſigns of an Inſatiable Prince; do in all humble Manner beg Leave to Congratulate your Majeſty, for that it hath pleaſed God in great meaſure to anſwer your Great End, by giving ſo entire a Victory over the French and their Confederate, by your Forces and thoſe of your Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough.
